

Original Version:

Prayer Centre Church of God is a deliverance ministry led by Prophet/Evangelist Samson Oluwamodede who is the founder and general overseer of the church. Below are the highlights of what transpired in the program.

The man of God in usual fashion started by eulogizing God, calling him different names and praising him. He then led the choir into a deep praise and worship session. The choir took control of the worship and the congregation sang and danced in joyous mood to the glory of God. Pastor Samson Oluwamodede blessed the people congregation as he closed the worship session which lasted for several minutes. Sequel to the the praise and worship session, the man of God promised to speak like a teacher, act like an evangelist and pray like a prophet. The man of God paid a short tribute to the late Prophet Ojo Olowere who recently passed away and encouraged the people to emulate his habit of fasting and praying highlighting the benefits to their body before proceeding to the sermon. He centered his sermon on Mordechai and Naboth citing the book of Esther 3:1-12. He spoke about how Herman lied against the children of Israel because he wanted to punish Mordechai for failing to bow for him. He prayed for the congregation that whosoever paid whosoever for paid for their lives will be the one to lose his life. He asked the people to pray against anyone that accused them in the kingdom of darkness and pay for their lives. He recounted on how Mordechai sought for Esther's help to save the life of the Jews. The man of God admonished that fasting makes people to do what is forbidden and go scot free. Haman died ignominiously after the Isrealited engage in fasting and prayer. Pastor Samson Oluwamodede highlighted how great a man Naboth was. 1 Kings 21:5-14 He lamented how Jezebel the witch helped her husband the king to forcefully hijack the landed property of Naboth. Jezebel wrote a letter. She proclaimed a fasting and prayer and sponsored people to wrongly accuse Naboth of blaspheming the King and God. He was subsequently stoned to death. Jezebel went scot free despite all her atrocities. Even when the prophet of God cursed her that where dog licked the blood of Naboth is the same spot dogs will lick her blood, she used fasting and prayer to lift the curse unto her generation. The man of God then led the congregation into a serious deliverance and violent prayer session. God used his prophet to reveal series of revelations during the prayer session and prayer points to back it up. In the heat of deliverance session, the man of God visited and conducted deliverance for the sick where they are usually gathered during special programs like the marathon fasting and prayer and many of them were delivered instantly. In the closing stages of the morning session of the marathon program, the man of God asked the people to pray that God should restore key of success and all good things they have lost.

EDITED VERSION

Prayer Centre Church of God Program: Prophet Samson Oluwamodede Ministers to Congregation with Powerful Teachings and Deliverance

In an awe-inspiring program at Prayer Centre Church of God, Prophet/Evangelist Samson Oluwamodede, founder and general overseer of the church, captivated the congregation with his fervent worship and enlightening teachings. The event commenced with the man of God exalting the Almighty, showering Him with praises and adoration.

As the choir led the attendees into a soul-stirring praise and worship session, an atmosphere of jubilation and reverence enveloped the venue. The congregation, filled with joy, expressed their devotion through song and dance, offering their heartfelt worship to God.

Concluding the worship session that lasted several minutes, Pastor Samson Oluwamodede pronounced a blessing upon the congregation, invoking divine favor and grace.

Following the uplifting worship, the man of God made a promise to assume the roles of a teacher, evangelist, and prophet. Paying tribute to the late Prophet Ojo Olowere, who recently passed away, he urged the people to emulate his dedication to fasting and prayer, emphasizing the benefits it bestows upon the body. He then proceeded to deliver his sermon.

Drawing from the Book of Esther (3:1-12), the man of God centered his sermon on the accounts of Mordecai and Naboth. He expounded on how the wicked Haman falsely accused the children of Israel, seeking to punish Mordecai for refusing to bow down before him. Prophet Samson fervently prayed for the congregation, declaring that those who plotted against the lives of others would themselves face divine retribution.

Encouraging the attendees to pray against accusations from the forces of darkness and the consequent payment for their lives, he recounted the story of Mordecai seeking Esther's intervention to save the Jews from impending doom. The man of God admonished the congregation, highlighting the liberating power of fasting, enabling one to evade punishment for forbidden actions.

In his teachings, Pastor Samson Oluwamodede illuminated the greatness of Naboth, referencing 1 Kings 21:5-14. He lamented how the treacherous Jezebel conspired with her husband, the king, to unlawfully seize Naboth's property. Jezebel orchestrated a false accusation against Naboth, instigating a fasting and prayer event, and sponsored individuals to testify falsely against him, resulting in his untimely death.

Despite the heinous crimes committed, Jezebel escaped punishment. Even when the prophet of God cursed her, foretelling that dogs would lick her blood at the same place they had licked Naboth's, she cunningly employed fasting and prayer to avert the curse upon her lineage.

The man of God then guided the congregation into a fervent deliverance session, where powerful revelations were revealed through the prophet, accompanied by corresponding prayer points.

During the intense deliverance session, the man of God personally ministered to the sick, who had gathered in a designated area, witnessing instantaneous healings as a result of divine intervention.

As the morning session of the marathon program drew to a close, Prophet Samson Oluwamodede called upon the congregation to pray for the restoration of lost blessings and the key to success.

The program at Prayer Centre Church of God, led by Prophet Samson Oluwamodede, left the attendees uplifted, inspired, and equipped with spiritual insights and deliverance from various afflictions.